Song Contest Walk Vienna

Start: Rathausplatz, arrival by metro line U2 station Rathaus
End: Prater, metro lines U1, U2 station Praterstern
Duration: Approximately 2 hours at a comfortable pace

Madame Tussauds is the perfect place for a selfie with one of the Austrian Song Contest winners. Since 2013 the wax figure of Udo Jürgens is exhibited From Mai 2015 on we will be able to admire Conchita Wurst in wax.

Both Austrian Song Contest winner, Udo Jürgens and Conchita Wurst, received at the Town Hall the award of the City of Vienna: "Goldener Rathausmann".

A bathrobe parade was organized by Madame Tussauds on the occasion of the 80th birthday of Udo Jürgens.The route of this parade led also through the wide 4-lane Praterstraße.

Vienna already was in 1967 the venue for the Song Contest. It was held at the large banquet room in the Hofburg, after Udo Jürgens won the Song Contest 1966 with "Merci, Chérie" in Luxemburg.

The Cafe Hawelka, located at Dorotheergasse 6, is a popular meeting point for Viennese intellectuals. On the list of its former visitors you can find Udo Jürgens and Andre Heller. The lyrics for the Song Contest contribution of Austria in 1979 was composed by A. Heller.

The Kärntner Straße is one of the top shopping streets in Vienna. It is even a tip from Conchita Wurst, who likes to stroll through this popular pedestrian area in the city.

Wooden steeps lead from the Franz-Josefs-Kai onto a wooden path beside the Donaukanal. This is also the location of "Motto am Fluss". The Restaurant is advised by Conchita Wurst. She praises the kitchen and the location.
