Vienna Sightseeing Walk

The Ringstrasse - Opera to Urania

Start & End: Vienna State Opera, metro station Karlsplatz, line U1, U2 and U4
Duration approx. 2,5 hours with Viennese serenity.

Streets and Alleys
Pedestrian Areas
Special Buildings
Parks
Footpaths
Waters
Churches
U1 Metro Stations
Stations
Route marking on the course
beside the course

© Wilhelm Balint 2020
Grundlagedaten: Stadt Wien – ViennaGIS
Scale approx. 1:6000
100m

city-walks
www.city-walks.info

The Postsparkasse is a building of the modernity and a free museum.

The observatory tower characterizes the image of the Urania building.

The Albertina is an famous art museum with an unique painting collection.

The baroque Winter Palace of Prince Eugene is today the Ministry of Finance.

The Palais Coburg stands on the remains of the city wall and is now a hotel.

The current MAK museums building was opened to visitors in the year 1871.

The gilded Johann Strauss monument stands in the Stadtpark since 1921.

The Vienna Opera has a an elaborate front in the Neo-Renaissance style.

The Musikverein building is world-famous for the New Year's Concert.

The Vienna Konzerthaus was opened in 1913 by Emperor Franz Joseph I.